Crl.O.C.P.No.17 of 2004

Date of decision : 23.02.2010

Court on its own motion ...Petitioner

Versus

M.B.Rana ...Respondent-contemner

Present : Sh. H.S.Brar, Addl. AG, Punjab.
Mr. M.B.Rana, respondent-contemner, in person.

CORAM:HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HEMANT GUPTA
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH

HEMANT GUPTA, J. (ORAL)

Today Mr. Rana, who is present in the Court, states that he holds the Court in highest esteem and undertakes not to repeat any such behaviour, which is subject matter of the contempt petition. He tenders unqualified apology. He undertakes that he will not take any step which undermines the authority of the Court or interferes with the administration of justice or scandalizes the process of the Court.

In view the undertaking given before this Court that he will not take any step which undermines the authority of the Court or interferes with the administration of justice, or scandalizes the process of the Court, we discharge the rule, subject to the condition that if any point of time, it is found that the respondent-contemner is mis-using the process of law or scandalize the Court in any manner, it shall be open to any person to seek revival of the present contempt petition.
